Behind the scenes of the New Nordic Cuisine:

You will be picked up by Solfinn Danielsen. His wine bar and restaurant pop-up & concept Rødder Vin (roots & wine), was recently featured in New York Times. He is a food & (natural) wine expert, originally trained as a sommelier. He knows everybody in and around food in Copenhagen, and he will introduce you to all of it. You will meet the restaurateurs, the produce providers and the chefs. While you move around the city you will sample many of the best products on offer before you make a stop at Palægade – Copenhagen's best open faced sandwich place for lunch.

Yachting in the Archipelago: You will explore the breathtaking Stockholm archipelago as you sail out on a unique adventure on a motored yacht. You will be picked up in front of your hotel. The landscape of the archipelago is constantly developing, leaving it to be one of the most fascinating experiences around Stockholm. Your captain will take you around to see as many of the smaller islands as possible and tell you the story of how it obtained its current shape. Following the tour, you will be sailed to the center of Stockholm, where the boat will dock, right in front of your hotel.

Surfing in Tjørnuvik: The giant white waves are flushing on to the dark volcanic beach, creating an almost dramatic affect, but attracting surfers from all around the world to the settlement of Tjørnuvik. The large waves from the sea has proven to be ideal for surfing and local surfers are eager to share their passion for surfing with visitors. Whether you want to spend several days or a couple of hours exploring the untamable sea local expert will make it happen.

Northern Lights Chasing: Experience Northern Lights, try snowshoeing and snowmobile driving in the untouched wilderness, experience kayaking, hunt for northern lights and much more in the northernmost part of Norway.

These regions turns into an incredible winter wonderland from November to early April, but Northern Lights can be caught as early as September.

Rally Car Racing On Ice: You will learn something new whether you are beginner or already an experienced driver. The program includes driving with rear-wheel drive BMWs, Porsches or other luxury vehicles. All vehicles have rally equipment: safety roll gates, special seats, spike rally tires etc. The content of the training session will be tailored according to your previous driving experience. The grand finale of the driving session is the rally sprint competition, consisting of two special stages. At the end of the program you will have the opportunity to hop into the co-pilot's seat and feel how an experienced rally driver handle the car.

Pro Cycling Experience: Together with Copenhagen's best professional bike shop Soigneur, we can arrange a pro cycling experience. First stop is their shop, where you will be met by one of their experts, who will have everything ready for your road racing tour - bikes, helmets, shoes etc. A former pro rider, will ride with you, and tell you all about the Danish pro- biking-environment, share training secrets, and make sure you don't get lost in the beautiful North Sealand landscape. You will be riding for a couple of hours before stopping for a cup of coffee - as the pros do - before heading back to the shop.

Thank you!
